

WELCOME TO FIUMALBO

This enchanted ancient village is located in the high Modena Apennines, on the border with Tuscany. The main center is located in a large valley, very sunny in winter as in summer, at the confluence of the Rio Le Motte and Rio dell'Acquicciola, that mark its historic old town. The name, however, comes from Fiumalbo Flumen album ("White River"). We are in the heart of the Tuscan Emiliano just 2 km from Abetone and less than 1 km from the beautiful ski slopes of its district.

Fiumalbo is present in the guide of the most beautiful villages in Italy, considered the "hidden charm of Italy"

In fact, the village has a long time, the old stone houses, mostly renovated, overlook sloping narrow streets, in the typical conformation medieval countries of the Apennines. The woods around the natural form a crown on which you require the peaks of Frignano and Mount Cimone in particular, who cling to the slopes of the scattered hamlets of Fiumalbo.

A family atmosphere and a warm and welcoming environment make this little village the ideal place to relax and enjoy all the charm of the mountain and traditions.
