

LONDRONE

WELCOME TO LONDRONE

To look at it from above, from one of the peaks that make up the crown, the Valley of Churches is a typical mountain valley, nestled on the banks of the River Churches that runs from north to south and is extended to the end in 'blue embrace of Lake Hydro.

Peaceful and picturesque, the lake offers a pleasant and restful; its banks are so constantly ventilated to make it very popular with sports fans of sailing and windsurf. Dal geographical point of view, the high valley is an offshoot of the great Adamello massif and has all the characteristics of the alpine environment dear to our memory as: clear and sparkling streams, wooded forests with meadows and pastures that reach up to 1,500 meters.
