

RICCIONE

WELCOME TO RICCIONE

Those who love fun loves Riccione. Night and day the city offers many opportunities for all. Youth for whom the fun never stops, even at night, and for families with children in tow: the nature of the seabed and the facilities and hotel resorts are, in fact, "suitable for children", stay safe as rewarding. A seaside resort that its origin has been able to anticipate and interpret the economic, social and lifestyle of the Italian company earning the undisputed title of "Heart" of the summer holidays. A small fact that by leveraging the dedication to the work of its people, welcoming and hospitable to tourists, stubborn and obstinate to improve and increase the tourist offer and, above all, great lovers of "living well", has achieved stardom at nationally and internationally. Every year, making it the ideal destination for thousands of tourists who want to experience the holiday each according to their taste and style. This is another secret of the success of Riccione, be a place accessible to everyone: families, singles, young people, adults and the elderly, men and women, entrepreneurs, students and workers usable in different ways during the day or night, at the beach or doing sports, dancing or resting. Throughout its history is interwoven by culture of hospitality, from the beginning of the last century, when tourism was the aristocratic families to bring out its vocation as host of the first improvised operators. Then Riccione knew professionally reinterpret its role as the Pearl of the holidays, creating innovation through the service. Riccione is not just beaches and nightclubs is also sport and culture with numerous facilities and important initiatives that the city hosts. For some years Riccione has increased its tourist offer thanks to the implementation of important structures, developing new segments that allow it "stays on" 365 days a year.
