

FORTE DEI MARMI

FORTE DEI MARMI...

The most renowned and popular sea-side resort of the Tyrrhenian Sea, Nobles of half of Europe, diplomats, businessmen and captains of industry, artists and celebrities have built beautiful villas hidden and protected by the green of the pine forest, choosing its fine sands to spend their holiday destination. Become in the last hundred years resort known and appreciated all over the world, has been able to transform a part of the original environment in beautiful gardens, orchards and lush lawns with villas set in the green, keeping intact the relationship with nature that is imposed forcefully on 'man and I resize the presence often careless or prevaricating.

In Forte dei Marmi guests can rediscover architectural, historical and cultural, enchanting towns lying in the many valleys or perched on the hills, enjoy the charm of the ancient mountain pastures of the Apuan Alps.

The Versilia offers a wide, almost full opportunity to exercise their favorite sport. The Apuan Alps allow the climbers to make climbing very exciting and hikers to make routes in all seasons and all the difficulties. The sea allows, with favorable conditions, to exercise the surf; it can also be exploited by sailors in each category, as well as Lake Massaciuccoli. The sports facilities are available for training and racing in particular, given the climate, during the winter: teams and individual athletes can avail of the equipment needed to train in good weather.
